LA PASSIONE[®] SORDEVOLO

EDIZIONE
2020

Associazione Teatro
Popolare di Sordevolo

THE PASSION OF CHRIST AT SORDEVOLO

Since about 1490, the play had been performed in the Colosseum on Good Friday, with a large attendance of people, pilgrims, travellers and famous persons. This tradition was interrupted in 1539 by Pope Paul III 's prohibition of such representations, due to the dramatic Reformation period and the subsequent Luther's, Calvino's and other religious movements detachment from the Roman Catholic Church. The "Roman" passion text reached Sordevolo through still mysterious ways. Since 1816 the entire community of Sordevolo has been representing the Passion of Christ. The Passion of Sordevolo is certainly the greatest choral play never performed in Italy by amateur actors: the performance takes place in a 4,000 square metres open space, a reconstructed corner of Jerusalem, dating back to 33 A.D.: Herod's Palace, Synedrium, Pontius Pilate's Praetorium, the Garden of Gethsemane, the cenacle, the Calvary. The 3-hours performance consists of a prologue and 29 scenes, with an overall participation of about 400 actors and walk-on characters.

VERONA CHOIR COMPETITION

From 01 to 05 April 2020

The romantic city of Verona was the setting of Shakespeare's classic love story, Romeo and Juliet. Red-roofed and pastel-shaded, Verona lies in a bend of the river Adige as it winds its way south from the Alps. Apart from Rome itself, Verona is Italy's best preserved Roman city, with a Roman bridge, Roman gates and the famous Roman amphitheatre, the Arena of Verona. Verona is a well preserved Romanesque, Gothic and Renaissance city, with beautiful frescoed churches and houses. Rich with tradition, this city is a perfect choral destination. The Verona Choir Competition is held in a local theatre of Verona where choirs have a maximum of fifteen minutes to perform their chosen pieces, judged by a panel of seven internationally acclaimed adjudicators. The Closing Ceremony ends with a grand procession from the reception through the city of Verona to the Roman Arena, where all guest choirs will join together to perform Va Pensiero by G.Verdi, Inno Alla Gioia by L. van Beethoven and Amazing Grace by J.Newton.

And Puccini is believed to have composed the third act of La Bohème here. The inhabitants of Treviso have chosen Spring especially to celebrate the annual "Wine Festival", with Spring exhibitions taking place from Valdobbiadene to Conegliano presenting to the public the wine from the previous harvest. This is the time to celebrate, to meet up in an area where the wine festival captures special character: more than 400 local wineries, large and small, take part in the many displays with over 300.000 visitors each year.
