TUSCANY, 5 TERRE AND BOCELLI

6 DAYS

5 NIGHTS
IN MONTECATINI

Every summer Andrea Bocelli gives a special performance in his hometown of Lajatico, at the Teatro del Silenzio (theater of silence), an amphitheatre built especially for his concerts and so called because for the rest of the year no other performance takes place. The setting of the open air theatre against the backdrop of the Tuscan hills delivers a truly unique experience.

DAY 1

Arrival at your hotel in Montecatini.
Dinner and overnight accommodation.

DAY 2 - Florence (by train)

In the morning we will take a train ride to Florence, the "cradle of Renaissance".

Our local guide will introduce us to the many delights of this city: the Duomo, with its iconic red-tiled dome and the beautiful Ponte Vecchio - home to 43 jewellers' shops - Piazza della Signoria with its palace, also known as Palazzo Vecchio, and the Basilica of Santa Croce.

Free time at leisure to explore Florence and its many treasures such as the world famous Uffizi Gallery. Back to the hotel in Montecatini for dinner and overnight accommodation.

DAY 3 - Cinque Terre (approx 220 kms)

After breakfast departure for a full day excursion to the Cinque Terre. We reach the city of La Spezia by coach, then proceed with the train into the Cinque Terre. We first visit Vernazza, a small and charming fishing village.

Vernazza's historic wealth is reflected in the elegant style of its houses and streets, from the castle. We then proceed by train to Monterosso, the biggest village of the Cinque terre.

The old town is delightful with its "caruggi" (narrow alleys), you can lose yourself in a glass of "Sciachetrà" (sweet local wine) in a cellar or simply walk or take a stroll up to the Convent of the Capuchin Friars where you can admire a beautiful panorama. A ferry will take you to the enchanting seaside town of Portovenere, famous for its tall pastel-colored houses and evocative views from the ruins of Doria Castle, where you will have free time to explore, before taking a second ferry to La Spezia.

Return to the Hotel for dinner and overnight.

DAY 4 - Pistoia and Lajatico (approx 150 kms)

After breakfast, we leave for Pistoia, lesser known as Lucca or Pisa, but a real off the beaten tracks gem.

A walking tour will lead you through the medieval part of the town, with the Cathedral of San Zeno with its Baptistry, the municipal palace and the narrow streets with funny names such as Via Abbi Pazienza (which means "be patient street").

Return to Montecatini late in the morning and in the afternoon departure to Lajatico to attend the Bocelli special concert at the Teatro del Silenzio.

Return to the hotel after the concert (very late arrival at the hotel) and overnight accommodation.

DAY 5 - Montecatini - day at leisure

This day is at leisure.

You can relax in this beautiful thermal resort.

DAY 6 - Departure

After breakfast, it's time to say "Arrivederci".

We then proceed to Pisa, famous all over the world for its leaning tower, the cathedral and the baptistery. Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight for dinner and overnight accommodation.

DAY 3 - Volterra and Bolgheri (approx 250 kms)

In the morning we'll reach Volterra, a jewel that dominates the Val di Cecina down to the sea. Volterra was a cradle to Etruscan, Roman, medieval and Renaissance civilisation and culture. Its history spans three thousand years, and filled the city with artistic and monumental heritage: among them the beautiful Piazza dei Priori with the city hall, the gates and the great walls dating from the thirteenth century, the ruins of the Roman theatre and the Fortress built by the Medici, with its high tower, the "Rocca del Mastio". We then proceed to Bolgheri, an enchanting medieval village, which comes into view at the end of a beautiful Cypress Lane. The Lane, nearly 5 kilometers long, is comprised of over two thousand cypresses, each hundreds of years old. The vineyards of the Bolgheri's hills that dominate the Maremma valley have been cultivated for centuries and produce some of the most award-winning wines in the world.

The visit of a winery with a wine tasting will complete this beautiful day before returning to the hotel for dinner and overnight for dinner and overnight accommodation.
