DAY 2 - ROME AND THE VATICAN

DAY 3 - ANCIENT ROME

DAY 4 - BAROQUE ROME AND NEW YEAR'S EVE

DAY 5 - BRUNCH AND ROME ON YOUR OWN

DAY 6 - DEPARTURE

ROME AND "GOOD MORNING VATICAN"

After breakfast we return to the historical centre of Rome to further explore the capital. The Vatican City, the heart of Catholic Christianity, awaits us beyond the Tiber River. With our guide we admire the magnificent and extremely vast Vatican Museums, which represent one of the largest and most interesting museum complexes in the world, with the incomparable Sistine Chapel famous for Michelangelo's Last Judgement. We can offer you the unique opportunity to "open" the Vatican Museum and to literally switch the lights on: you can discover the museums out of the crowd and enjoy a breakfast at the Caffetteria della Pigna in the courtyard of the building. Free time for sightseeing of Rome until we return to our hotel.

ANCIENT ROME

The morning is dedicated to the visit of the landmark of Rome, the Coliseum. The Coliseum originally known as "Anfiteatro Flavio" is still nowadays the biggest amphitheater in the world. We then head to the Roman Forum, located in a valley between the Palatine and the Capitoline hills. Considered the heart of ancient Rome the Forum has been called the most celebrated meeting place in the world, and in all history. Opposite to the Forum, from Via dei Fori Imperiali you will admire the Traian's Markets: Thought to be the world's oldest shopping mall, the arcades in Trajan's Market are now believed by many to be administrative offices for Emperor Trajan. The shops and apartments were built in a multi-level structure and it is still possible to visit several of the levels. The tour proceeds to the Capitol hill, for a panoramic view over the roman forum. Return to your hotel.

BAROQUE ROME

Today our tour goes on with the discovery of the wonders of the Eternal City. Walking through its streets is like travelling back in time, between the ancient Roman ruins, monuments, marvellous squares, fountains, gardens and villas as well as temples and churches of all ages - each one revealing stunning paintings, statues and altars. With our guide we visit Rome both by coach and on foot, and have free time available to admire this amazing city: the Colosseum, the Roman Forum, Piazza Navona, the Trevi Fountain, and the National Monument "Altare Della Patria".... all waiting to be discovered! During the day you might have the possibility of a lunch at "Alfredo alla Scrofa's restaurant" and try the original Fettuccine Alfredo. At the end of this memorable day we return to our hotel.

CHRISTMAS DAY

The morning is at leisure before a traditional Christmas lunch. You can attend a Mass in one of the many churches in city or go to St' Peter's square for the Papal Blessing "Urbi et Orbi". The afternoon is at your leisure to enjoy the "Dolce Vita" in Rome.

POMPEI

In the morning departure from the hotel towards Pompeii. Pompeii is for its visitors of the greatest fascination. After the eruption of Vesuvius in 79 AD, Pompeii lay buried and forgotten for centuries under the lava. The excavations, which already begun in 18th century, still go on today. Our guide will lead you through some of the ancient streets, where you can see Baths, Forums and villas which were built by wealthy Romans in 80 BC. It is nearly unbelievable how good the fabulous frescoes that adorn the walls and floors of the villas have been preserved. You cannot say you have been to Sorrento, until you've tried the original Limoncello made from local grown lemons. A stop to see a Limoncello production factory with a tasting on the way to your is of course a must. Return to your Hotel.

NAPLES

Naples is a very charming and lively southern Italian port city on the Gulf of Naples. Its an unique location at the foot of Vesuvius. The mild climate, the rich history and numerous attractions have attracted tourists from all over the world since 18 Century. The heart of Naples is the old town, declared by the UNESCO to World Heritage, with its narrow streets which lead to mysterious churches, catacombs and caves. Between artisans, flapping laundry and screaming fish sellers still today the old Neapolitan folk culture is revealed to its visitors. Naples is dominated by the hill of Vomero with the impressive Castel S. Elmo, from where you can enjoy a magnificent view over the city, the Vesuvius and the sea. Not to miss during Christmas Period is San Gregorio Armeno, where the craftsmen have a longstanding tradition for producing nativity figurines. A lunch in a pizzeria during the visit is included: after all, pizza was invented here! Return to your Hotel.
