34° INTERNATIONAL VERONA CHOIR COMPETITION 2026

COMPETITION AND FESTIVAL WITH CHOIRS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

From 8 to 12 April 2026

The historic old town of Verona with its romantic alleys once inspired Shakespeare to write the world-famous love story of Romeo & Juliet. Experience this magic city rich in tradition.

The annual choir festival and choir competition in Verona is not only a highlight for the province of Verona but also for the Association Gruppi Corali Veronesi. The international choir competition provides singing associations and choirs with the opportunity to meet choirs from other countries and to perform in various exclusive locations.

INTERNATIONAL
CHOIR FESTIVAL
IN WOLFSBERG

PARTICIPATION IN THE FESTIVAL WITH CHOIRS FROM EUROPEAN COUNTRIES

From 28 to 30 August 2026

Join us on a group trip to the International Choir Festival in Wolfsberg and immerse yourself in the enchanting world of choral music. Set amidst Carinthia's lush green valleys and majestic mountains, this festival offers a truly magical atmosphere.

From 28 to 30 August 2025, the Lavant Valley transforms into a natural stage for an unforgettable celebration of music. Experience the rich harmonies of local choirs, guardians of ancient folk and dialect traditions, alongside international ensembles sharing songs from their homelands. Together, they create a delightful blend of tradition and innovation.

As part of the festivities, celebrate the splendour of the Carinthian Alps with a Holy Mass in the mountains, held at an altitude of 1,500 meters – an awe-inspiring experience for both body and soul. Between performances, unwind with moments of enjoyment, taking part in organised activities and lively gatherings for all participants.
